Creative in Residence

An invitation to create

We welcome photographers, filmmakers, artists, writers and other creatives to come practise their art at Bluerock Ranch. Let the beauty of the Alberta foothills, our horses and the everyday life of a working ranch become your palette. There is no shortage of real-deal models here, both four-legged and two-legged, or honest stories waiting to be told.

Bring your eye, your ideas and your own creative voice. We would love to hear how you would use this setting, what you could contribute to the ranch, and what you hope the experience would offer you in return.

How to apply

We review applications sent via WhatsApp to +1 604 379 5982. Send this completed questionnaire, links to your portfolio, and a short introduction video. Please keep your video to 3 minutes or less. There is no need for a polished production; we want to get to know you.
